NOTICES FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA:

(A) NOTICE regarding possible credit consequences: Pursuant to Civil Code § 1785.26, you are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted in the future to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your rental obligation or if you default in those obligations in any way. This is the only notice that you will receive in this regard.

(B) NOTICE regarding abandoned property: "State law permits former tenants to reclaim abandoned personal property left at the former address of the tenant, subject to certain conditions. You may or may not be able to reclaim property without incurring additional costs, depending on the cost of storing the property and the length of time before it is reclaimed. In general, these costs will be lower the sooner you contact your former landlord after being notified that property belonging to you was left behind after you moved out." California Civil Codes §1946.1; §1983-1989 et seq.

Please be advised that any tenant under the above-stated agreement that remains in the unit after the termination date may result in the Landlords seeking to enforce the termination in Court, in an action for Unlawful Detainer at which time the occupant(s) may appear and present a defense.

Finally, any Notice to Pay or Quit served prior to this one is hereby superseded and canceled. Any notice served in conjunction with or subsequent to this one is not designed to supersede or cancel this present notice. You are still required to oblige by the terms outlined in this Notice.
